The Honorable Adrian Fontes
Arizona Secretary of State
1700 West Washington Street
Phoenix, Arizona 85003

Dear Secretary Fontes:

I write to report what appear to be serious campaign finance violations committed by Elect Katie Hobbs, Katie Hobbs' campaign committee for her gubernatorial reelection campaign. ("Hobbs Candidate Committee").

In short, the Hobbs Candidate Committee appears to be paying for significant campaign expenses that should be borne by this candidate committee from a political action committee set up to support her candidacy called Copper State Values (the "PAC"). Of course, the PAC is raising money in unlimited amounts from individuals and corporations, so-called soft money. Generally, PACs can do that, but a PAC cannot be used as a repository for soft money contributions that go to pay for expenses of a campaign committee, which is limited in what it can raise to $5,500 per individual and cannot take money from corporations or unions. That is, a candidate committee has to rely on hard money.

Another troubling aspect is that the PAC appears to be controlled by the Governor. The PAC's chair is Nicole DeMont, who also serves as the Hobbs Candidate Committee campaign manager. Unlike most efforts, which operate with at least some degree of facial independence, the Governor's reelection campaign manager is also in charge of the PAC.

I. THE HOBBS CANDIDATE COMMITTEE AND THE PAC

The Hobbs Candidate Committee has been assigned committee number 2018000057 by your office. Its chairman is Lela Alston, its Treasurer is Dacey Montoya, and the campaign manager is Nicole DeMont. (Exhibit A). The Hobbs Candidate Committee lists the following additional information for it with your office: 530 East McDowell Road Box 107-407, Phoenix. The email is Dacey@TMWCompliance.com, and the phone is (602) 892-4728.

As for the PAC, its committee # is 101799. Its chair is Nicole DeMont, and Treasurer is also Dacey Montoya. The rest of its information, excluding its telephone number but including its address and email address are the same as for the Hobbs Candidate Committee. (Exhibit B). The address for both is simply the same mail box at a UPS store in Phoenix. <https://locations.theupsstore.com/az/phoenix/530-e-mcdowell-rd>

II. THE NATURE OF THE PAC AND THE WAY IT APPEARS TO FUNNEL MONEY TO PAY EXPENSES THAT LEGALLY MUST BE PAID BY THE HOBBS CANDIDATE COMMITTEE

Based on its campaign finance reports and what can be gleaned from publicly available sources, there is a third committee, the Katie Hobbs Victory Fund (“Joint Fundraising Committee”, committee # 102061), that appears to serve as a joint fundraising committee, with the candidate beneficiary being Katie Hobbs and the secondary beneficiary, which takes the money that the Hobbs Candidate Committee cannot, being Copper State Values.

In Quarter 1 of 2026, the PAC received $257,563.86 in joint fundraising transfers from Katie Hobbs Victory Fund, according to Hobbs Victory Fund PAC campaign finance report. (Exhibit C). But the PAC itself reported no such receipts, though it did receive $285,000 from other sources. (Exhibit D). That means that one of those reports is wrong and has to be amended, but that is the not the main point of this letter.

The more troubling aspect is the way the PAC seems to be picking up payroll and potentially other expenses for the Hobbs Candidate Committee. The PAC seems to only function as a repository of monies that are then distributed to various left-wing entities, who will presumably help the Governor get elected—that and paying for expenses that legally must be paid by the Hobbs for Candidate Committee. As for the transfers to political committees, the Navajo County Democrat Party and Arizona Democrat Party are recipients of large contributions. Apparently the Navajo County Democrat Party will be the major party committee supporting the Governor’s reelection because of rancor.

But in terms of the PAC, it seems to do nothing but receive money and distribute money. It does not have any discernible political activity in terms of expenditures for express advocacy. It does not even have a website. And yet, it racks up hundreds of thousands of dollars in expenses, money that it reimburses to Elect Kaite Hobbs. Its 2025Q4 and 2026Q1 reports show a total of over $344,000 remitted to the Hobbs Candidate Committee for so-called “shared” expenses. It shares payroll expenses, expenses for rent, expenses for travel, and other expenses¹. This raises the question about why an entity that appears to serve only as an account to deposit funds into and disburse funds out of needs to be racking up those kings of expenses.

And the above are only the direct cash payments from the soft money PAC to the Hobbs Candidate Committee, for expenses that by all appearance legally must be borne by the candidate almost exclusively. The PAC, which might aptly be called the Shell PAC, also has incurred hundreds of thousands of dollars in expenses paid out to consultants. While these funds have not gone directly to the Hobbs Candidate Committee, the Hobbs Candidate Committee appears to be the beneficiary and thus the entity that should be paying, with hard money dollars.

For example, the PAC has paid Montverde Strategies just shy of $55,000, according to campaign finance reports. (Exhibits D and E). Montverde Strategies is Nicole DeMont's company. (Exhibit F). And Nicole DeMont is, again, the campaign manager for the Hobbs Candidate Committee—she is running the Governor's own re-election campaign/ campaign committee.

Other beneficiaries of the PAC's largesse are Capital Strategies, which, to nobody's surprise who has reviewed all these reports, serves as a consultant to Katie Hobbs. (Exhibit G). Capital Strategies has been paid an eye-popping $198,625.00 for the cycle by the PAC. (Exhibits D and E). But the Hobbs Candidate Committee has paid Capital Strategies a mere $33,125.00. (Exhibit H). Capital Strategies lists Katie Hobbs as a client but says nothing about Copper State Values. (Exhibit I).

The PAC makes other payments of dubious legitimacy in terms of any need on the part of the PAC, as detailed in the report. What you need to investigate is what activities, if any, by the PAC would justify the kinds of expenses it incurs. Absent that, the expenses paid directly by the PAC to the Hobbs Candidate Committee and paid by the PAC to vendors effectively on behalf of the Hobbs Candidate Committee constitute in kind contributions to the Hobbs Candidate Committee, and result in illegal contribution to the Hobbs Candidate Committee in excess of the limits in state law. See A.R.S. § 16-912.

One other thing to know about this whole scheme is that the Joint Fundraising Committee has distributed funds it has collected as follows:

Hobbs Candidate Committee: $568,692.71
Navajo County Democrat Party: $657,185.09

¹ These are just two of the quarterly reports—your office has the others and it is a similar story.

The PAC: $257,563.86.

To put this in perspective, though it received only $257,563 from the Joint Fundraising Committee, it made $344,000 in direct cash payments to the Hobbs Candidate Committee, and paid Nicole DeMont's company and Capital Strategies another $253,000, for nearly $600,000 in expenses. It is hard to conceive a legal justification for all of that.

And the PAC also shares tens of thousands of dollars of expenses with the Joint Fundraising Committee. (Ex. --, PAC 2026Q1). For joint events, expenses should be paid to the Joint Fundraising Committee, not the Hobbs Candidate Committee.

Candidate contribution limits mean little if candidates can simply funnel money that the candidate herself cannot legally receive to a political action committee and turn around and have that political action committee pay for that candidate's campaign expenses. For a useful discussion of the hard money/soft money distinction, its genesis and importance, I would refer you to Shays v. Federal Election Com'n, 528 F.3d 914, 917 (D.C. Cir. 2008).

III. THE PAC FUNCTIONS AS AN ARM OF KATIE HOBBS' GUBERNATORIAL CAMPAIGN, A POSSIBLE VIOLATION OF THE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION LIMITS

Arizona law specifies strict limits for personal contributions to candidates. For Governor, a candidate is limited to $5,500 per person. A.R.S. § 16-912(A)(3). Of course, accepting a corporate or union contribution is a criminal offense. A.R.S. § 16-916. That is one of the reasons Super PACs exist, to accept and spend the monies that candidates cannot.

In Hobbs' case, she is in full control of the Super PAC supporting her, the PAC, by virtue of the fact that the person heading it is also her campaign manager. Generally speaking, candidates are circumspect in the amount of interaction they have with the Super PACs supporting them. One famous Federal Election Commission opinion broke new ground in advising that it was legal for a candidate to speak at an event for its Super PAC. See FEC Opinion, 2011-12. This is to avoid coordination, which results in Super PAC expenditures being treated as in-kind contributions to candidates, often triggering a myriad of campaign finance violations². But never mind simply appearing at an event to signal support for a political action committee—Katie Hobbs is in charge of the PAC.

Of course, mitigating against a finding of an independent expenditure violation are two facts. While the first fact mitigates against a finding of a violation of the independent expenditure laws, it operates in reverse on the issue identified above, tending to show an in-kind contribution from the PAC to cover Hobbs Candidate Committee expenses, at a minimum a violation of the contribution limits. That is, if the PAC is not engaged in any independent expenditure activity on its own, then why the need for these major expenses, as shown on the PAC's campaign finance report?

The second factor is that certain party expenditures can be coordinated with that parties' nominee, which in the instance of the Navajo County Democrat Party, for example, would be Katie Hobbs. But that only includes Katie Hobbs for Governor, and is limited to in-state candidates. See A.R.S. 16-901(17). And that raises yet another issue, and that is that the PAC gave $1.1 million to the Virginia Democrat Party on October 8, 2025, in the midst of the Virginia gubernatorial election, which occurs in odd numbered years. (Exhibit X).

This large contribution by the PAC came on the heels of an August 2025 contribution to it from the Arizona Democrat Party of $1.7 million, raising the question of why the state party did not simply contribute directly to the Virginia Democrat Party. There are also troubling questions about whether donors have been informed that so much of their contributions would be sent to Virginia to help candidates there. Your investigation must look into this, too.

IV. CONCLUSION

The hard money vs. soft money distinction is a critical one and must be maintained through robust enforcement. Without it, we might as well not have any contribution limits to candidates because they could be circumvented the way Governor Hobbs has attempted to, illegally. Please take appropriate enforcement action.

Very truly yours,

Andy Biggs Raises Nearly $3M For Arizona Governor's Race

By Staff Reporter |

Rep. Andy Biggs (R-AZ-05) announced he has raised nearly $3 million to date, and has over $1 million cash on hand.

Following the aggregate donations of multiple contributors, the biggest donations to Biggs' campaign came from Biggs' federal campaign, Biggs2016, amounting to $50,000, and the Freedom Club PAC which gave over $16,000.

Arizona campaign funding data reports fellow Republican congressman and gubernatorial candidate David Schweikert as having raised nearly $900,000, and having nearly $300,000 cash on hand.

Schweikert's top donors came from Schweikert's own coffers. $572,00 came from Schweikert's federal campaign committee, Friends of David Schweiker $115,000 came from Schweikert himself.

Even combined, the pair doesn't come close to the amount in the Democratic governor's campaign coffers.

Incumbent Gov. Katie Hobbs has raised over $5.7 million since last year, and has over $6 million in cash on hand.

Unlike Biggs and Schweikert, Hobbs had multiple large donors outside of multiple contributor aggregates, mainly unions: Unite Here Tip Campaign Committee ($11,000), United Food and Commercial Workers Union of Arizona Local 99 ($11,000), AFSCME People ($11,000), Arizona Education Association ($11,000), and Hollywood star Jennifer Garner ($10,000).

Hobbs also received nearly $250,000 in non-contribution income from Copper State Values, a political action committee established and chaired by Hobbs' campaign manager, Nicole Demont.

Demont established the PAC in December 2024, and teamed up with leading dark money handler Dacey Montoya ("The Money Wheel"), who serves as the PAC's treasurer. Funds from the PAC began benefitting Hobbs' campaign last June.

Other than a few contributions to outside organizations, it appears Copper State Values functions as a funding arm for the Hobbs campaign.

Copper State Values has made payments to a number of companies which Hobbs has paid for services, including $150,000 to the California-based Capital Strategies, which has Hobbs listed under its clientele; nearly $7,000 to Pingdex for calls; and $40,000 to Monteverde Strategies.

The non-contribution income covered shared expenses between the Hobbs campaign and the PAC: acquisition, office supplies, insurance, professional services, rent, finance consulting, payroll, postage, mailers, utilities, fuel, food and beverage, fundraising event, travel, and health insurance.

Multiple donations came from the health sector: Centene Management Company, the Missouri-based largest Medicaid managed care organization in the nation; PhRMA, the D.C.-based biopharmaceutical trade association; 7WireVentures, an Illinois-based backer of digital health companies; Paradise Valley healthcare executive Reginald Ballantyne; Scottsdale-based Priority Ambulance; Ohio-based Elevance Health; UnitedHealth Group; CVS Health.

Others donations coming from special interests included Google, NextEra Energy Resources, a Florida-based wholesale electricity supplier; DraftKings, the Massachusetts-based online sports gambling giant; Sports Betting Alliance; DoorDash, the food delivery service giant; Casey Wasserman, with the major California talent agency Wasserman; Green Valley-based cell tower and telecommunications attorney John Pestle; California-based solar developer Mark Boyadjian for Arevia Power; Tempe-based Carvana; and California-based clean energy developer Clearway Renew Consolidated Devco.

Multiple donations to the PAC came from the real estate sector: California-based Klein Financial Corporation; Verde Investments, a Tempe-based real estate firm; James Edward Pederson, a Phoenix-based founder of the Pederson Group; Mark Breen, and Scottsdale-based president of Atlantic Development & Investments.

Other sizable donations came from the Arizona Beverage Association; Marcia Grand, Tucson retiree and wife to late trial attorney Richard Grand; the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community; Arizona Democratic Party; Democratic Governors Association; D.C.-based Laborers International Union of North America; and Illinois-based racial justice group Communities United.

Karrin Taylor Robson, who suspended her campaign earlier this year, accumulated over $4.7 million for her gubernatorial run. Over $2.2 million of that came from her own pockets. Her cash balance sat at $1.1 million.
